16.3 Working with Government

16.3.1 Provide expert advice to the Government. Year: 2025

Provide specific expert advice to the local, regional, or national government (for example through policy guidance, participation in committees, and provision of evidence).

The evidence below consists of two official letters and 18 captures from the University's websites, dated between January 2025 and November 2026. It documents (1) written communication from, and committee membership assigned by, government and judicial bodies; (2) forums, conferences, and workshops organized by the University with, or attended by, representatives of government, security, and election bodies, including workshops held under Ministry of Higher Education directives; and (3) legal-awareness, legal-clinic, and legal-analysis activities on social and environmental issues. Each description is placed next to its document and is limited to what that document states.

Evidence 1 – Letter from the Babylon Court of Appeal Presidency (Supreme Judicial Council), 13/02/2025

An official letter dated 13 February 2025, titled "Opinion statement", from the Supreme Judicial Council, Presidency of the Babylon Court of Appeal, Office of the President of the Court of Appeal, to Al-Mustaqbal University / College of Law. Replying to the College's letter no. 122/35/7 of 12 February 2025 about the study "The escalation of divorce cases: causes and legal effects", submitted by Asst. Lecturer Arkan Abdulkadhim Al-Hamdani, it commends the work as a good study that can be used on the scientific side, including by presenting it to personal-status judges for consideration when hearing cases, and highlights the importance of the study's recommendations on public awareness. It is signed by Judge Dr. Habib Ibrahim Hamada, Deputy President of the Babylon Court of Appeal.

Relevance to 16.3.1: an official written recognition from a judicial authority that a College study can inform the work of personal-status judges, evidencing expert input provided by the University to the judiciary.

A news item on the sustainability website (sustainability.uomus.edu.iq/News/details/39) titled "The College of Law at Al-Mustaqbal University Hosts a Workshop on Accreditation Standards for Law Colleges", dated 10 Jan 2025 and tagged with SDG 16, with a photograph of a speaker addressing the workshop. The Arabic version of the news item, with full details, is presented in Evidence 9.

Relevance to 16.3.1: confirms the College's role as host of a Ministry-mandated workshop on accreditation standards; see Evidence 9.

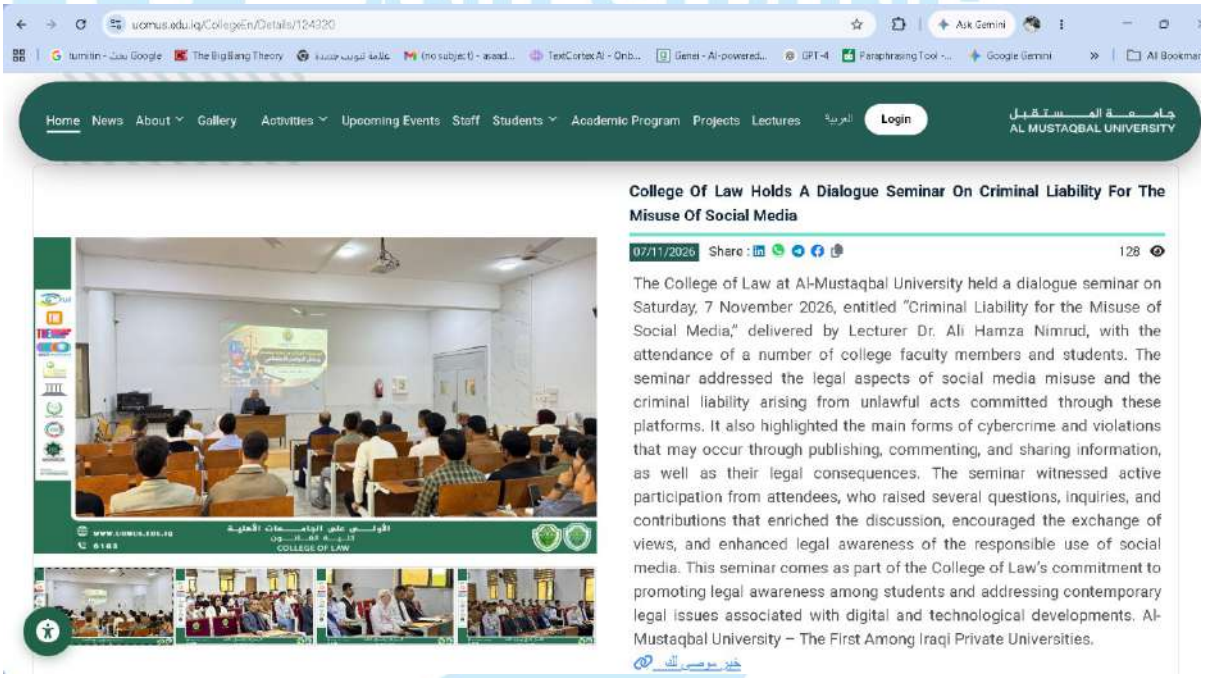

Evidence 3 – News item: Legal Clinic services of the College of Law (04/04/2026)
A news item (uomus.edu.iq/CollegeEn/Details/110839) states that the College of Law announced the services of its legal clinic, including free specialized legal consultations for students, employees, and civil society groups provided by selected academic professors; the continuation of field and volunteer training for undergraduate students in defending underprivileged families in collaboration with the Iraqi Bar Association; and awareness seminars, courses, and workshops with judges on social phenomena such as divorce and environmental issues.
Relevance to 16.3.1: shows the College providing free specialized legal consultation to civil society groups and working with judges and the Iraqi Bar Association on social and environmental issues.

Evidence 4 – News item: dialogue seminar on criminal liability for the misuse of social media (07/11/2026)

A news item (uomus.edu.iq/CollegeEn/Details/124320) reports that the College of Law held a dialogue seminar on Saturday, 7 November 2026, titled "Criminal Liability for the Misuse of Social Media", delivered by Lecturer Dr. Ali Hamza Nimrud in the presence of faculty members and students. It addressed the legal aspects of social media misuse, the main forms of cybercrime, and their legal consequences.

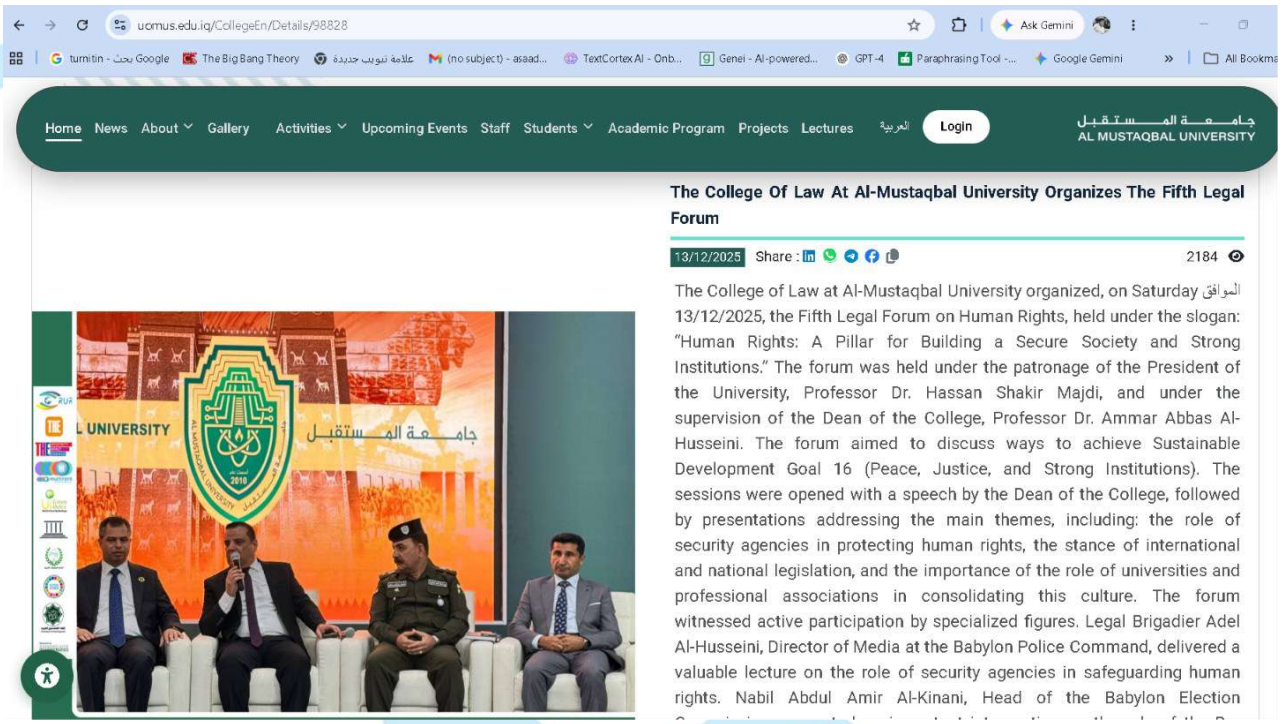

Relevance to 16.3.1: demonstrates the College's expert legal analysis of a current public-policy issue, cybercrime and the misuse of social media.

Evidence 5 – News item: Fifth Legal Forum on Human Rights (13/12/2025)

A news item (uomus.edu.iq/CollegeEn/Details/98828) states that the College of Law organized the Fifth Legal Forum on Human Rights on Saturday 13/12/2025 under the slogan "Human Rights: A Pillar for Building a Secure Society and Strong Institutions", under the patronage of the University President and the supervision of the Dean, Prof. Dr. Ammar Abbas Al-Husseini, to discuss ways of achieving Sustainable Development Goal 16. Sessions covered the role of security agencies in protecting human rights, national and international legislation, and the role of universities and professional associations. Participants included Legal Brigadier Adel Al-Husseini, Director of Media at the Babylon Police Command, who lectured on the role of security agencies, and Nabil Abdul Amir Al-Kinani, Head of the Babylon Election Commission. Relevance to 16.3.1: a University forum that brought representatives of local security and election bodies together with legal academics on human rights and strong institutions, providing a platform for expert exchange with government bodies.

Evidence 6 – News item: workshop on environmental pollution in Babil Governorate and local laws (24/03/2026)

A news item (uomus.edu.iq/CollegeEn/Details/109748) reports that the College of Law held a specialized workshop titled "Environmental Pollution in Babil Governorate and the Role of Local Laws in Mitigating It" on Tuesday, 24 March 2026, at the College. Dr. Ali Hamza Nimrud, who moderated, reviewed the main pollution challenges in the governorate and analyzed the legal and procedural gaps that hinder the implementation of environmental laws, with ways to improve them.

Relevance to 16.3.1: demonstrates expert legal analysis of local legislation, identifying gaps in the implementation of environmental laws in Babil Governorate and ways to address them.

Evidence 7 – News item: online workshop on environmental legislation and renewable energy (26/03/2026)

A news item (uomus.edu.iq/CollegeEn/Details/110062) reports that the College of Law held an online workshop via Google Meet on Thursday, 26 March 2026, titled "The Role of Environmental Legislation in Supporting Renewable Energy (Iraq as a Case Study)", moderated by Ammar Youssef Khudair. It analyzed the state of environmental laws in Iraq, focusing on the Law on the Protection and Improvement of the Environment No. 27 of 2009, and the government's efforts to support solar and wind projects by streamlining procedures and granting investment licenses.

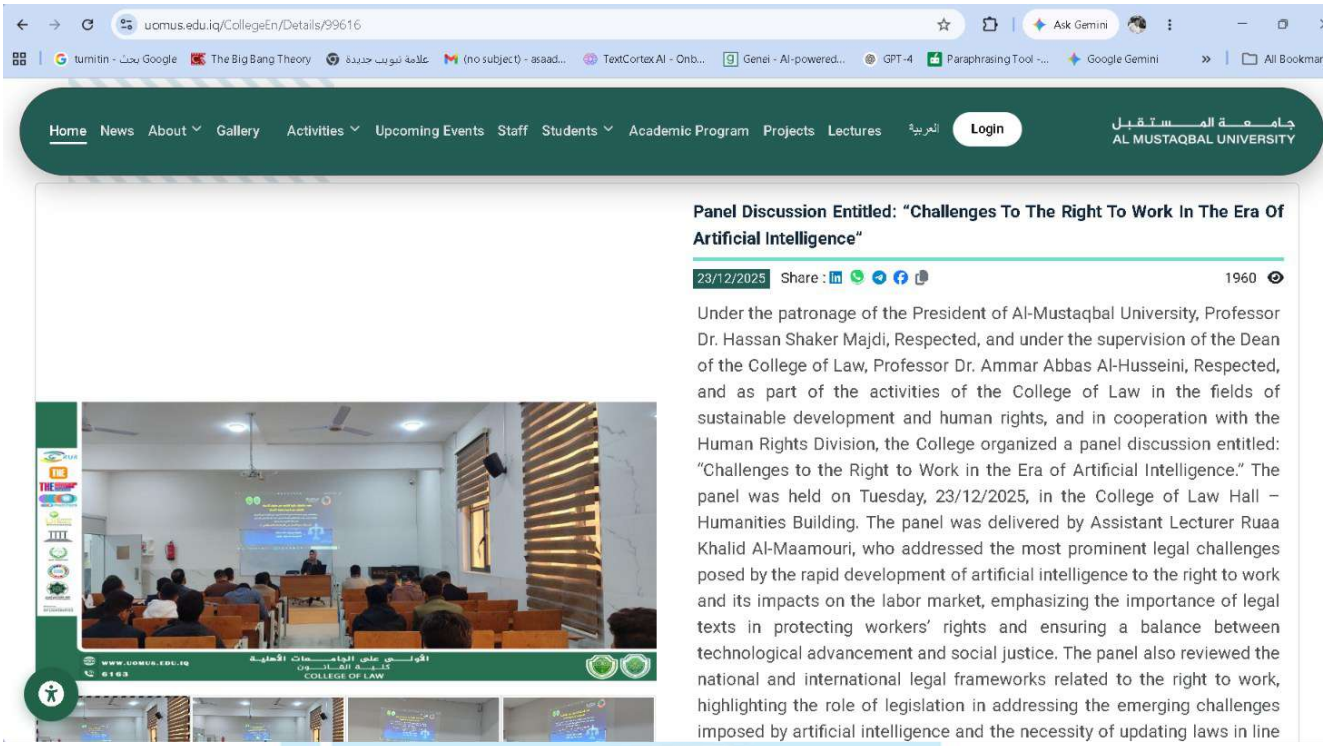

Relevance to 16.3.1: demonstrates expert analysis of national environmental legislation and of government measures supporting renewable energy.

Evidence 8 – News item: panel on the right to work in the era of artificial intelligence (23/12/2025)

A news item (uomus.edu.iq/CollegeEn/Details/99616) states that the College of Law organized, in cooperation with the Human Rights Division, a panel discussion titled "Challenges to the Right to Work in the Era of Artificial Intelligence" on Tuesday, 23/12/2025, in the College of Law Hall. It was delivered by Assistant Lecturer Ruaa Khalid Al-Maamouri and reviewed legal challenges posed by artificial intelligence to the right to work, and the national and international legal frameworks related to it.

Relevance to 16.3.1: demonstrates expert legal analysis of an emerging policy issue, the right to work in the era of artificial intelligence, within national and international legal frameworks.

Evidence 9 – News item (Arabic): central workshop on accreditation standards for law colleges (08/01/2025)

An Arabic news item (uomus.edu.iq/College/Details/64557) states that, in implementation of a decision of the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research (Supervision and Evaluation Authority, Quality Assurance and Academic Accreditation Department, Accreditation Councils Division; no. 5557 of 15/12/2024), the College of Law hosted on Wednesday 8/1/2025 the central workshop on accreditation standards for law colleges in the governorates Babil, Al-Qadisiyah, Karbala, Kufa, Wasit, and Muthanna. Attendees included Prof. Dr. Nizam Jabbar Talib, Dean of the College of Law at the University of Al-Qadisiyah, and two accreditation council members. The Dean of the host College, Prof. Dr. Ammar Abbas Al-Husseini, said the workshop clarifies the program accreditation standards for law colleges in Iraq.

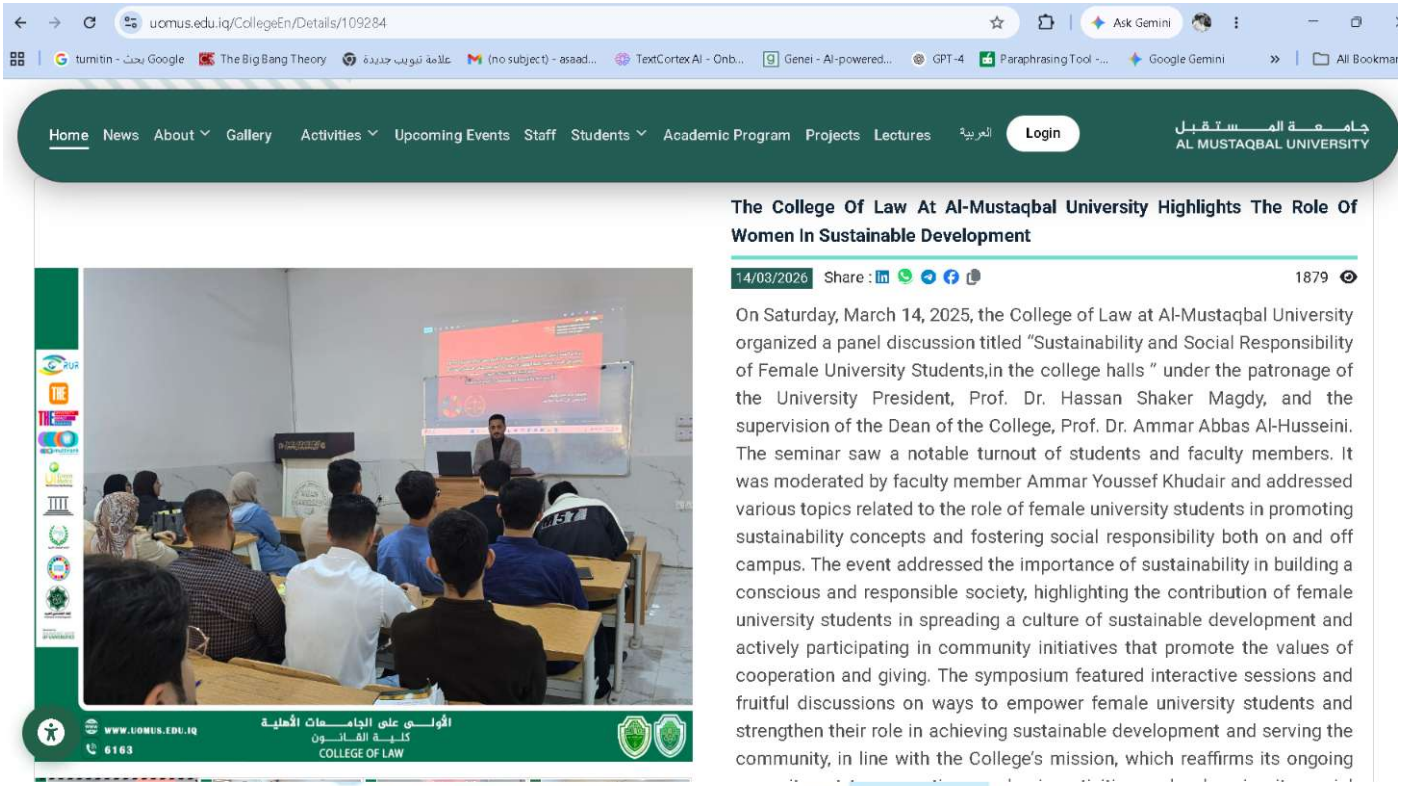

Relevance to 16.3.1: shows the College of Law hosting, under a Ministry decision, the central workshop serving law colleges across the listed governorates, in support of the Ministry's program accreditation process for legal education.

Evidence 10 – News item: panel on the role of women in sustainable development (14/03/2026)

A news item (uomus.edu.iq/CollegeEn/Details/109284) dated 14/03/2026 states that the College of Law organized a panel discussion titled "Sustainability and Social Responsibility of Female University Students", under the patronage of the University President and the supervision of the Dean, moderated by faculty member Ammar Youssef Khudair, with a notable turnout of students and faculty members. It addressed the role of female students in promoting sustainability and social responsibility on and off campus.

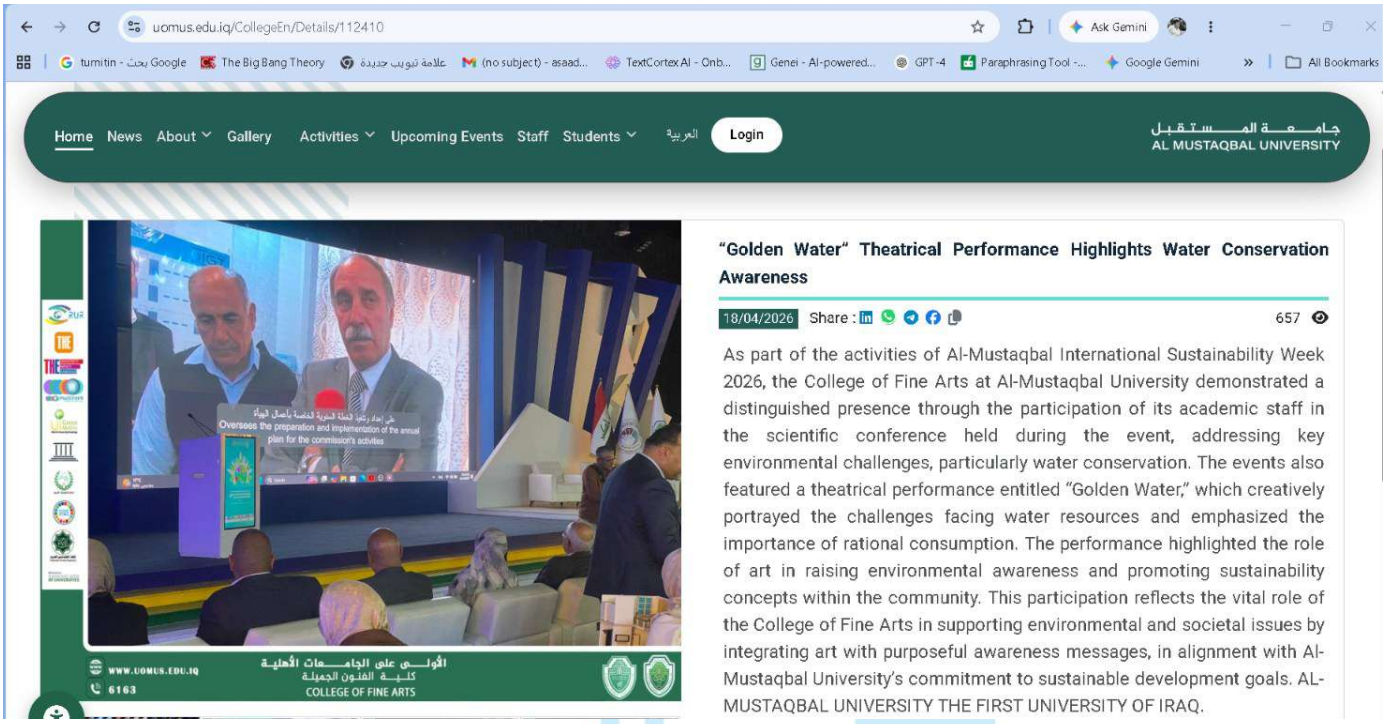

Relevance to 16.3.1: demonstrates the College of Law's contribution to public discussion of sustainability and social responsibility, on and off campus.

Evidence 11 – News item: “Golden Water” performance during Sustainability Week (18/04/2026)

A news item (uomus.edu.iq/CollegeEn/Details/112410) reports that, during Al-Mustaqbal International Sustainability Week 2026, academic staff of the College of Fine Arts took part in the scientific conference held during the event, which addressed environmental challenges, particularly water conservation, and that a theatrical performance titled “Golden Water” portrayed the challenges facing water resources and the importance of rational consumption.

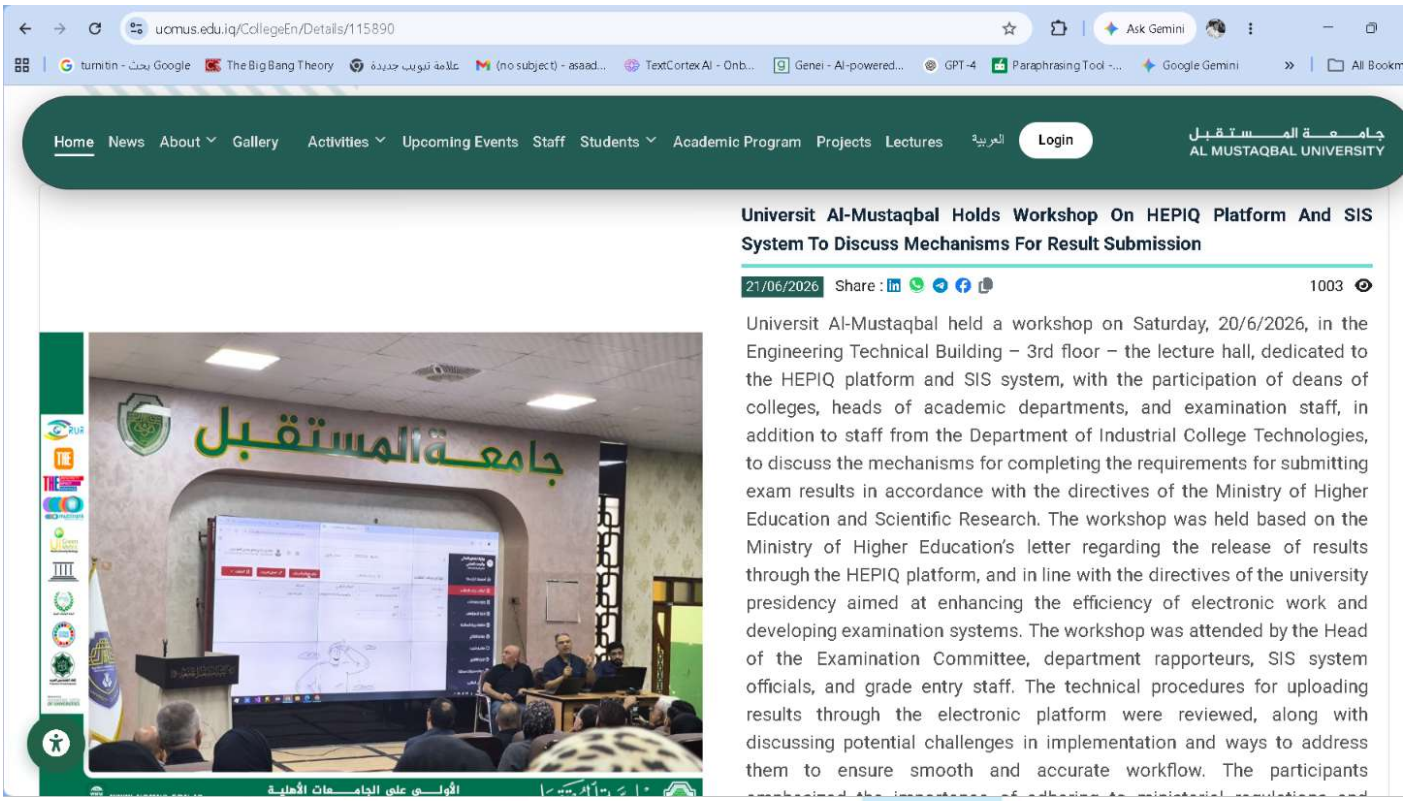

Relevance to 16.3.1: shows University academics contributing to a scientific conference on environmental challenges and using the arts to raise public awareness of water conservation.

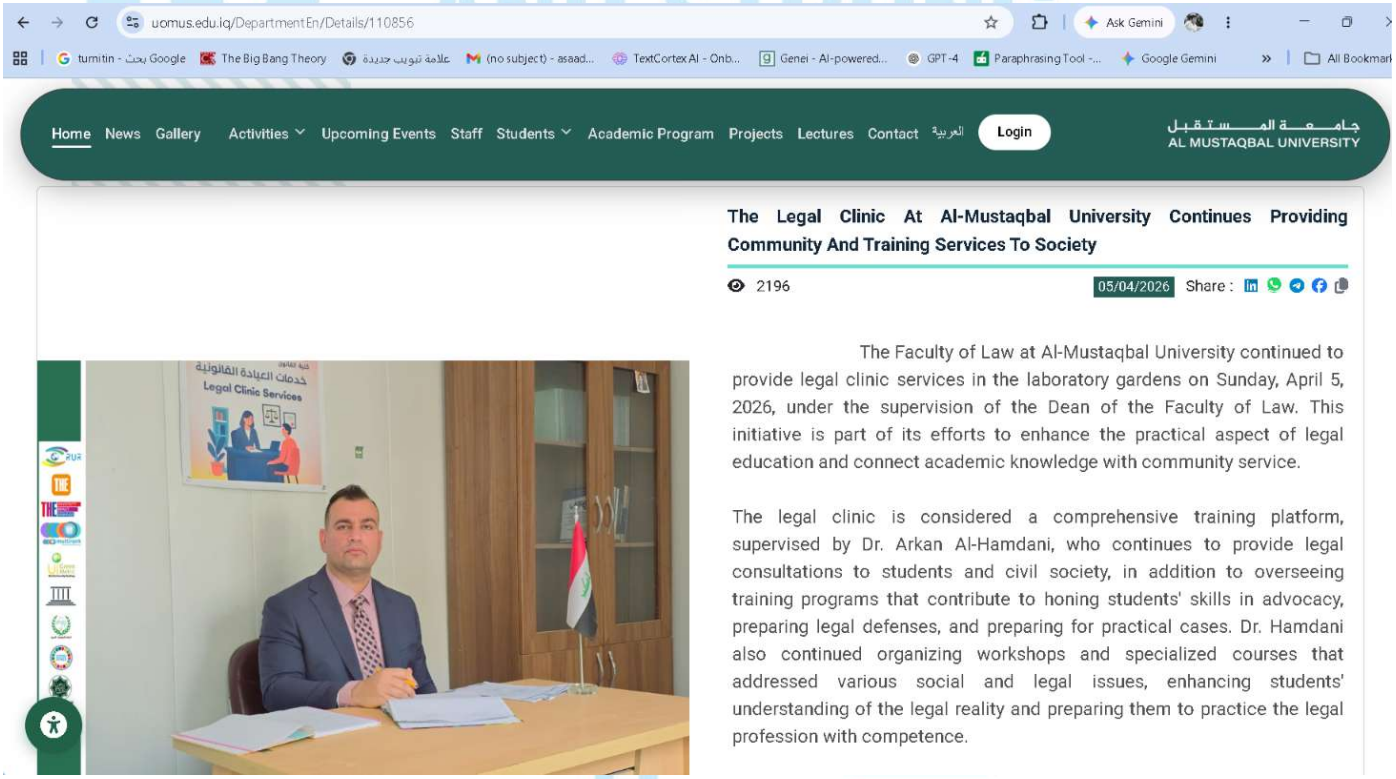

Evidence 12 – News item: workshop on the HEPIQ platform and SIS system (21/06/2026)

A news item (uomus.edu.iq/CollegeEn/Details/115890) states that the University held a workshop on Saturday, 20/6/2026, on the HEPIQ platform and the SIS system, with deans, heads of academic departments, and examination staff, to discuss the mechanisms for submitting exam results in accordance with the directives of the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research and a Ministry letter on the release of results through the HEPIQ platform.

Relevance to 16.3.1: demonstrates the University's close alignment with the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research in implementing the Ministry's platform for the release of examination results.

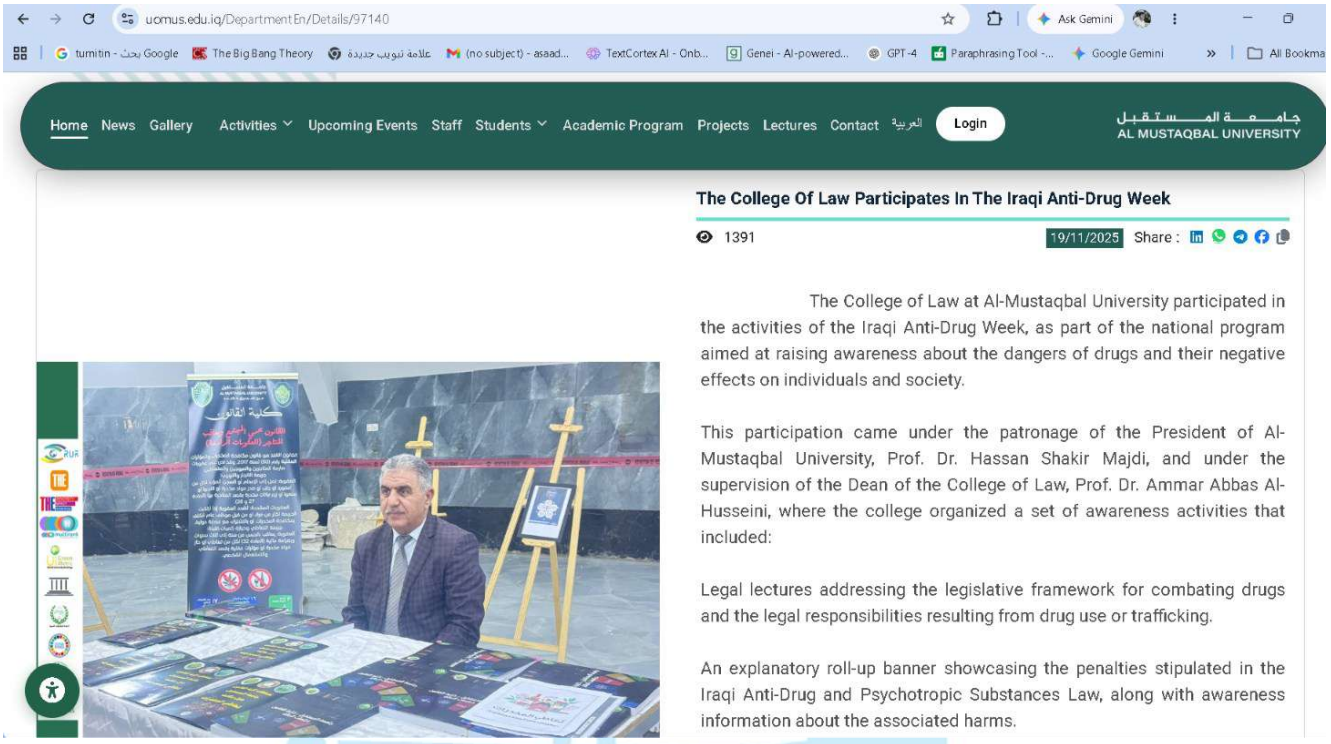

Evidence 13 – News item: the Legal Clinic continues its services (05/04/2026)
A news item (uomus.edu.iq/DepartmentEn/Details/110856) states that the Faculty of Law continued to provide legal clinic services on Sunday, April 5, 2026, under the supervision of the Dean. The clinic is a training platform supervised by Dr. Arkan Al-Hamdani, who provides legal consultations to students and civil society and oversees training programs and workshops on social and legal issues.
Relevance to 16.3.1: shows sustained legal consultation provided to civil society under academic supervision, alongside training programs on social and legal issues.

Evidence 14 – News item: participation in the Iraqi Anti-Drug Week (19/11/2025)

A news item (uomus.edu.iq/DepartmentEn/Details/97140) states that the College of Law participated in the activities of the Iraqi Anti-Drug Week, part of a national program to raise awareness of the dangers of drugs, under the patronage of the University President and the supervision of the Dean. The activities include legal lectures on the legislative framework for combating drugs and an explanatory banner on the penalties under the Iraqi Anti-Drug and Psychotropic Substances Law.

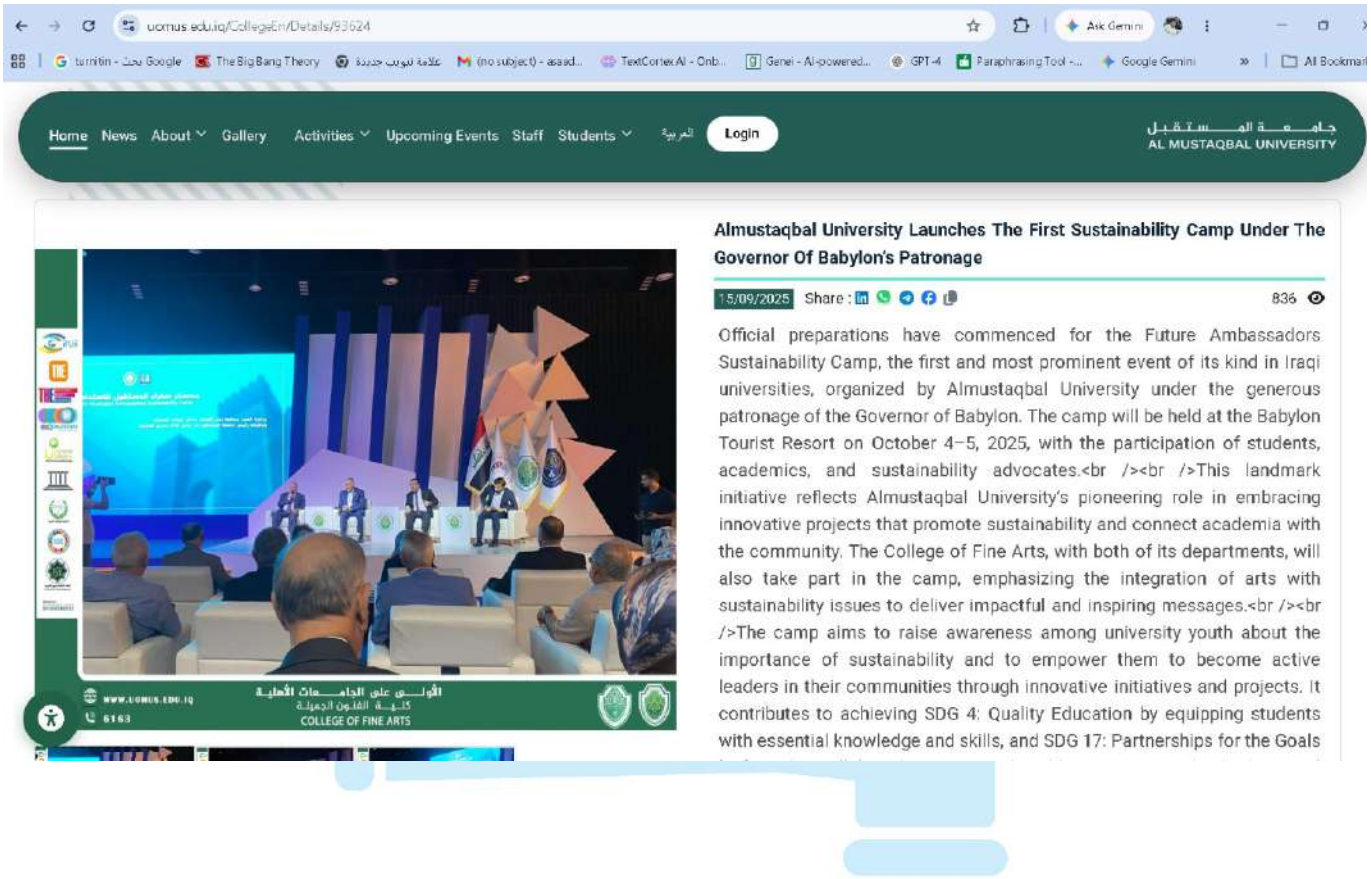

Relevance to 16.3.1: shows the College contributing legal expertise to a national anti-drug awareness program.

Evidence 15 – News item: Sustainability Camp under the patronage of the Governor of Babylon (15/09/2025)

A news item (uomus.edu.iq/CollegeEn/Details/93624) reports the start of official preparations for the Future Ambassadors Sustainability Camp, organized by the University under the patronage of the Governor of Babylon, to be held at the Babylon Tourist Resort on 4–5 October 2025 with students, academics, and sustainability advocates. The College of Fine Arts will take part, and the camp aims to raise sustainability awareness among university youth.

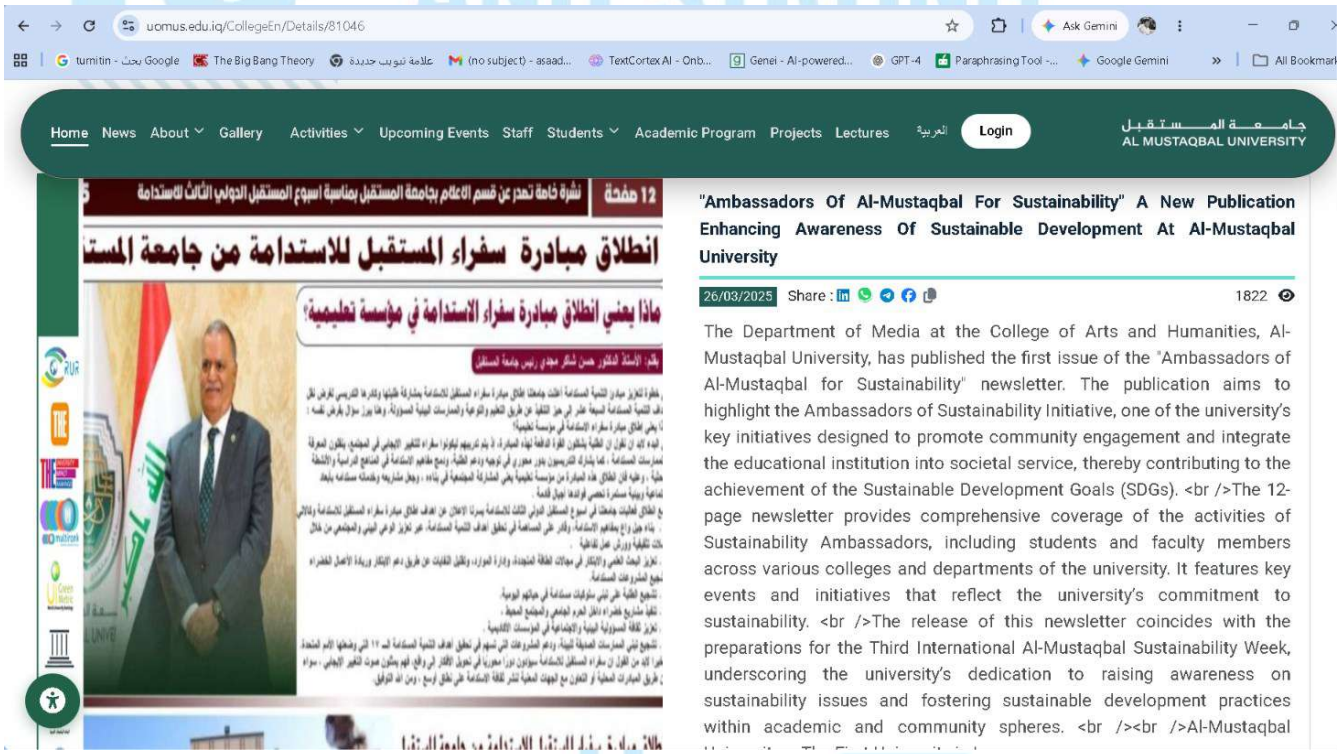

Relevance to 16.3.1: shows the Governor of Babylon acting as patron of a University-organized sustainability event, reflecting the provincial government's support for the University's initiatives.

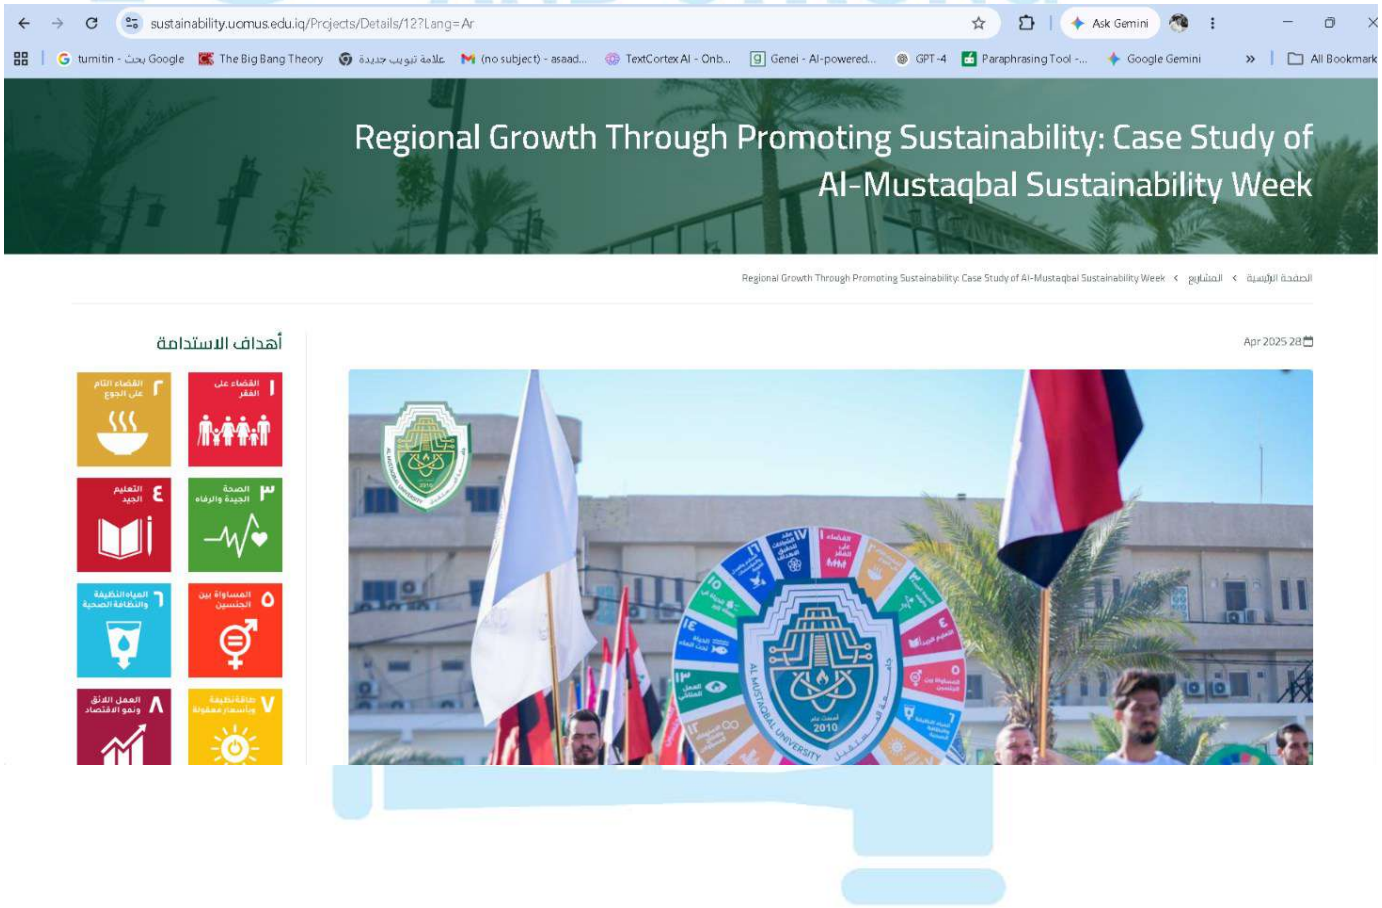

Evidence 16 – News item: “Ambassadors of Al-Mustaqbal for Sustainability” newsletter (26/03/2025)

A news item (uomus.edu.iq/CollegeEn/Details/81046) states that the Department of Media at the College of Arts and Humanities published the first issue of the 12-page newsletter “Ambassadors of Al-Mustaqbal for Sustainability”, covering the activities of the Sustainability Ambassadors, including students and faculty members across the University’s colleges.

Relevance to 16.3.1: documents the University’s public reporting on its sustainability work, communicating the activities of students and faculty across its colleges.

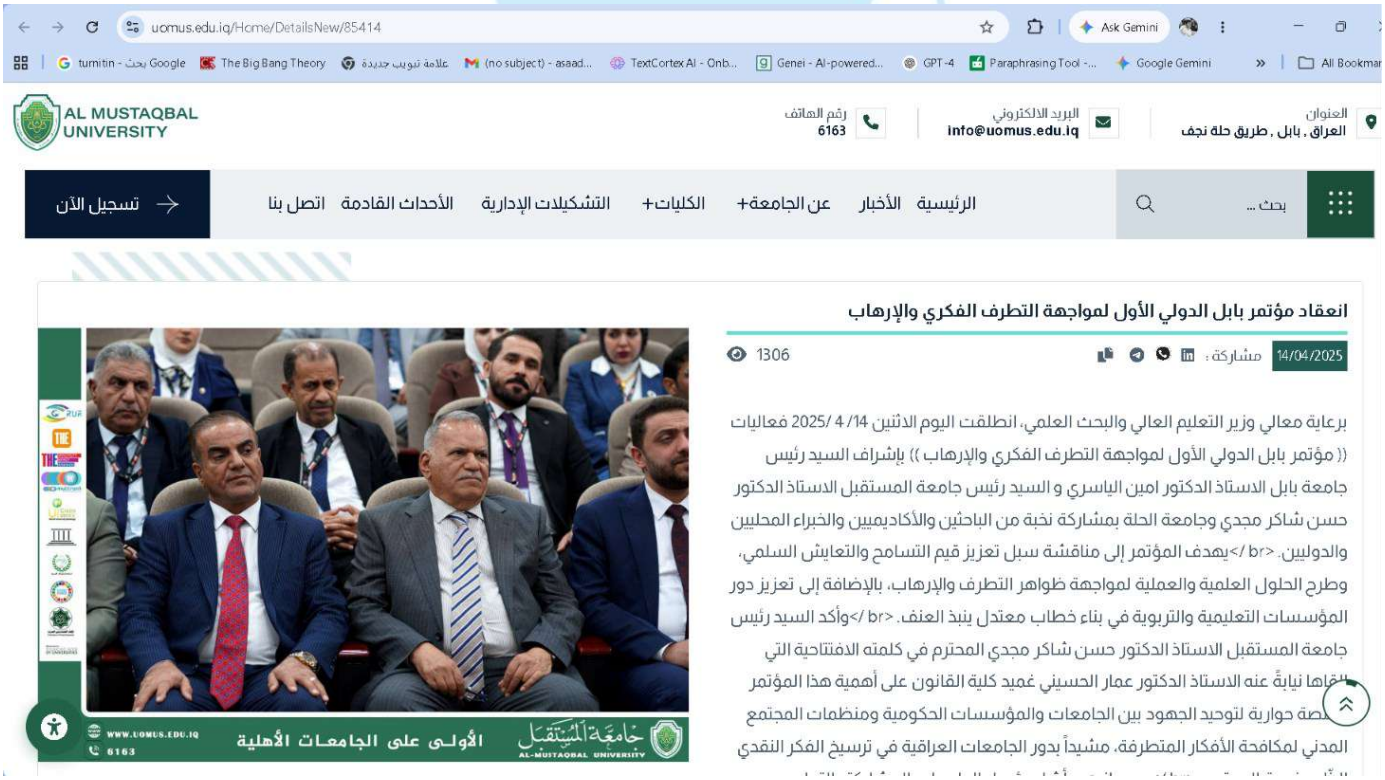

Evidence 17 – Project page: "Regional Growth Through Promoting Sustainability: Case Study of Al-Mustaqbal Sustainability Week" (Apr 28, 2025)
A page on the sustainability website (sustainability.uomus.edu.iq/Projects/Details/12) titled "Regional Growth Through Promoting Sustainability: Case Study of Al-Mustaqbal Sustainability Week", dated Apr 28, 2025, presents a University project with the SDG icons and a photograph of a procession carrying the University emblem and a Sustainable Development Goals wheel.
Relevance to 16.3.1: presents a University case study on regional growth through the promotion of sustainability, drawing on the experience of Al-Mustaqbal Sustainability Week.

Evidence 18 – News item (Arabic): First Babylon International Conference on Confronting Extremism and Terrorism (14/04/2025)

An Arabic news item (uomus.edu.iq/Home/DetailsNew/85414) states that the conference began on Monday 14/4/2025 under the patronage of the Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research, supervised by the President of the University of Babylon (Prof. Dr. Amin Al-Yasiri) and the President of Al-Mustaqbal University (Prof. Dr. Hassan Shaker Majdi) together with the University of Hilla, with local and international researchers and experts. The conference aimed to discuss ways to promote tolerance and peaceful coexistence and to present scientific solutions to extremism. The Dean of the College of Law, Prof. Dr. Ammar Abbas Al-Husseini, delivered the opening speech on behalf of the President and described the conference as a dialogue platform to unify efforts among universities, government institutions, and civil society organizations.

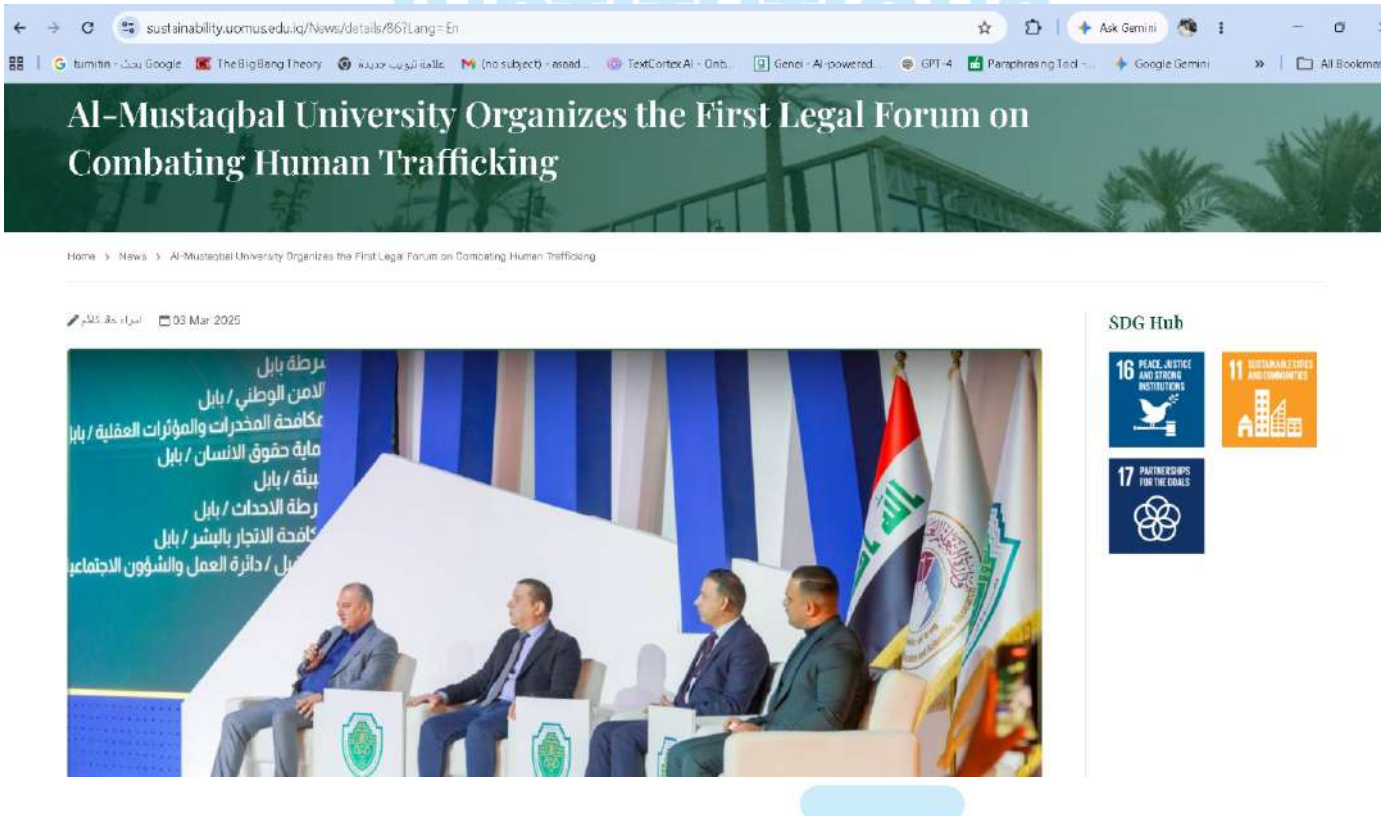

Relevance to 16.3.1: a conference under the patronage of the Minister of Higher Education and Scientific Research, co-supervised by the University, serving as a dialogue platform that unites universities, government institutions, and civil society organizations in confronting extremism.

Evidence 19 – News item: First Legal Forum on Combating Human Trafficking (03 Mar 2025)

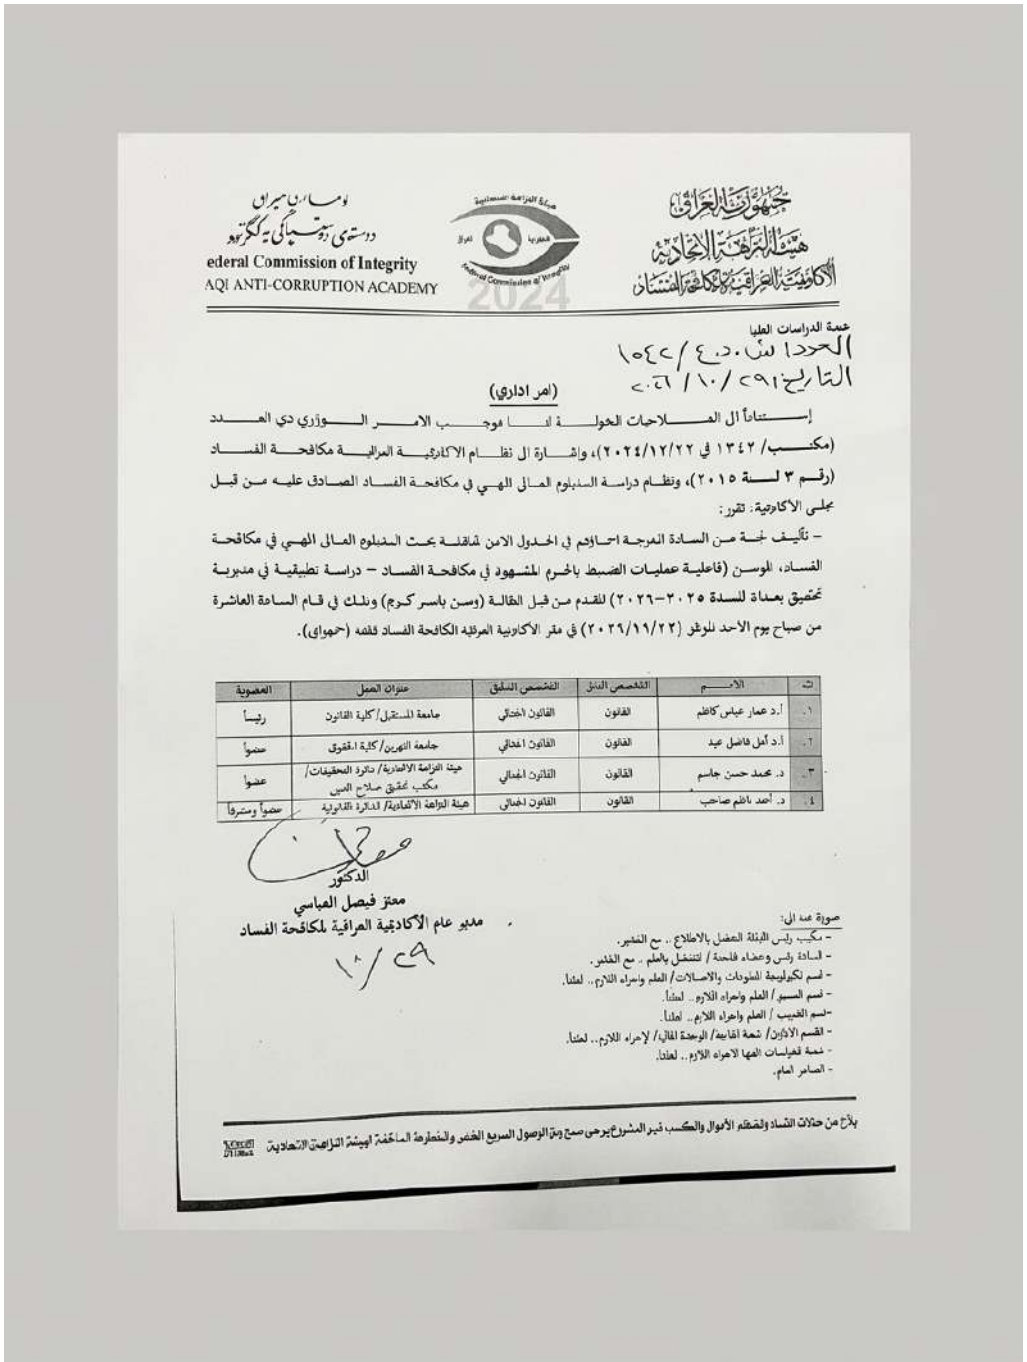

A news item on the sustainability website (sustainability.uomus.edu.iq/News/details/86) titled "Al-Mustaqbal University Organizes the First Legal Forum on Combating Human Trafficking", dated 03 Mar 2025 and tagged with SDG 16, The photograph shows the forum panel in front of a backdrop naming Babylon-based bodies, including Babylon Police, National Security, the directorate for combating drugs and psychotropic substances, human rights protection, environment, juvenile police, combating human trafficking, and the Department of Labour and Social Affairs.

Relevance to 16.3.1: a University-organized forum on combating human trafficking whose official backdrop names local government and security bodies, reflecting its multi-agency scope.

Evidence 20 – Order of the Iraqi Anti-Corruption Academy forming a thesis-discussion committee

An administrative order from the Iraqi Anti-Corruption Academy (Federal Commission of Integrity), Higher Studies Division, issued with reference to a ministerial order (office no. 1342 of 22/12/2024), the Academy's system (No. 3 of 2015), and the system of the Professional Financial Diploma in Combating Corruption. It forms a committee to discuss a diploma research paper titled "The effectiveness of flagrante delicto arrest operations in combating corruption – an applied study in an Investigation Directorate" for the academic year 2025–2026, at 10:00 a.m. on a Sunday at the Academy's headquarters. The four-member committee comprises Prof. Dr. Ammar Abbas Kadhim (College of Law, Al-Mustaqbal University), chair; Prof. Dr. Amal Fadhil Abd (College of Law, Al-Nahrain University), member; Dr. Mohammed Hassan Jassim (Investigation Department, Integrity Commission), member; and Dr. Ahmed Nazim Sahib (Legal Department, Integrity Commission), member and rapporteur. The order is signed by Dr. Moataz Faisal Al-Abbasi, Director General of the Academy. Relevance to 16.3.1: demonstrates that a government anti-corruption body appointed a College of Law faculty member to chair an academic committee evaluating an applied study on combating corruption, a direct instance of University expertise serving a government institution.
